Hi there Tanmoy,

Thank you for visiting my website at Numerologist.com, and for requesting this sample mini-reading and ongoing numerology tutorial.

Over the coming weeks, I'll be giving you a wealth of information about numerology (all completely free of charge!). I look forward to taking the journey with you - numerology is a true passion of mine, and it is my hope that you find numerology to be just as fascinating as I do. Let's jump right in by starting to analyze your numerology chart ... The best place to start is with one of the most basic calculations ... your "life path" -- based on your birth date of November 5, 1962 -- is 7.

How Is Your Life Path Calculated ?

This is calculated in four steps:

1. Add up the digits in your month of birth (if more than one digit)
2. Add up the digits in your day of birth (if more than one digit)
3. Add up the digits in your year of birth.
4. Add up the answers from (1), (2), and (3) above.

With all the above calculations, we keep adding until we end up with a single digit, or an 11 or 22 (which are special cases in numerology, known as "Master Numbers").

In your case Tanmoy, you were born on November 5, 1962.

Your month of birth is November, which is the 11th month. Note that we do not add the two digits 11 because 11 is known as a Master Number

Your day of birth is the 5th. As 5 is a single digit, there's nothing to add here.

Your year of birth is 1962. Adding 1 + 9 + 6 + 2 gives us 18. Adding 1 + 8 gives us 9

The totals, then, are 11, 5, and 9. To get our final answer, we add these three numbers together to give us 25: Adding 2 + 5 gives us 7

Read the each line from left to right, it shows the life path calculation for your month, day, year and how they are reduced together to arrive at your life path number.

What Does Your Life Path Say About You?

Some 7's have such quick minds that they have difficulty expressing themselves

Tanmoy, your Life Path of 7 ...

You are a reserved, analytical and peace-loving soul who is blessed with intuition and intelligence. Your ability to concentrate, learn and absorb information far outshines other numbers and you often excel at all forms of scholastics. Usually your intellectual prowess as well as the clarity and foresight of mind is very evident to others at an early age.

However at the same time you are also a very spiritual number. This is because you believe whole heartedly in the relationship between Mother Nature and science. This is part of your inquisitive nature and determination to get to the bottom of what makes the world tick.

You dislike braggarts, gossips and neurotic individuals and find socializing difficult. This is because you can barely hold back your contempt of other people, who are often, indeed acting like fools. You dislike crowds, noise and confusion, so others are more likely to find you watching television at home rather than attending a big sports events.

As you are so intelligent and intuitive, you almost always end up being in the right place at the right time. Number 7's tend to excel at any career that they choose as they have the discipline and mental power to master anything in half the time of the other numbers. As they are so smart, they are also often very good with money and never make the mistake of letting compound interest work against them. If you are a seven then you are the number that is probably the most reluctant to lend or borrow money.

Your mind works at the speed of lightening but often this makes it difficult for you to be understood by others. Others simply cannot evaluate or analyze information as fast as you.

Some 7's have such quick minds that they have difficulty expressing themselves. One of your life path challenges is to learn how to slow down and accommodate those that may not be as smart as you but may offer you emotional rewards in your life.

The fact that you are so easily misunderstood makes social and love situations very challenging for you. Usually 7's suffer a great deal of rejection from their peers as they are seen as contemptuous and aloof. Overcoming shyness is also a common problem for sensitive 7's who can't understand why others don't appreciate how smart they are. You are not likely to have a wide circle of friends, but once you do accept someone as your friend the bond is usually for life. The same thing goes for your love life. It is not unusual for a seven to go their entire life without a partner simply because you cannot relate to the emotions and drama that accompany most relationships. This causes you to appear self-centered to others as you opt to spend your time on more interesting subjects. As emotions are very trying for your brilliant mind, you may find yourself feeling very unbalanced when you are in a relationship. More than any other number you are very prone to negative codependent behaviors such as obsession or acting out fears of abandonment on a partner. For this reason many close personal relationships don't often last. You are happiest when you are alone to pursue your innermost thoughts and inner dreams. You may also be interested in the occult or metaphysical matters as well as science, anthropology, archaeology and religions. Many number 7's are great music lovers as it is an art form that blends math with spiritual qualities.

Your Expression Number

Your Expression - which describes your potential natural talents and abilities - works out to be a 7.

How Is Your Expression Calculated?

What we are going to do now is turn all the letters in your name at birth into numbers, using the following chart :

In practice I put the vowels above the name and the consonants underneath. This is because your Soul Urge is derived from the vowels alone, so it makes it easier at the next step to do it this way. Again there is one exception to the rule and this is with the letter 'Y'. If it acts as a consonant and is pronounced it is classed as being a consonant. If it is not pronounced or acts as a vowel it is classed as being a vowel. The 'Y' in Yolande, for instance, would be classed as being a consonant, but the 'Y' in Larry would be classed as being a vowel as it acts as a vowel. Let's work out your Expression number, Tanmoy : Using the above chart we would put a '2' below the 'T' in your first name. We would follow this with a 1 placed above the 'a', then a 5 below the 'n', a 4 below the 'm', and so on...

We then carry on in the same manner with the rest of your name. When you are finished, you should end up with a chart like this:

1		6	7		1		1		1		7	1
a	n	m	o	y	B	h	a	t	t	a	c	h	a	r	y	a
5	4			2	8		2	2		3	8		9

Now we simply add up the numbers in each row.

The top row: $1 + 6 + 7 + 1 + 1 + 1 + 7 + 1 = 25$

The bottom row: $2 + 5 + 4 + 2 + 8 + 2 + 2 + 3 + 8 + 9 = 45$.

We now add the total of the top and bottom rows, which gives us $25+45=70$. Adding $7 + 0$ gives us 7

And so, Tanmoy, your Expression is 7.

What a Number '7' Expression Says About You

To you the ultimate expression of your higher self lies within the mysteries of science, nature and the occult. Most number 7s tend to be interested in all three

Tanmoy, your Expression of 7 ...

Your Potential Natural Talents and Abilities

You are a secret rebel and a loner preferring the company of your brilliant thoughts and fantastic daydreams to the company of other people. You are incredibly spiritually sophisticated and this creates an odd air of detachment to your personality.

You tend to express yourself in a very blunt manner to others simply

You tend to express yourself in a very blunt manner to others simply because you are not a big believer in wasting time with niceties. You tend to not express yourself well through your facial expressions or body language although you can be quite eloquent with words. You do not say much but when you do say something it is usually acutely observant or very enlightening.

To you the ultimate expression of your higher self lies within the mysteries of science, nature and the occult. Most number 7s tend to be interested in all three topics.

Many are mathematicians, naturalists, anthropologists, historians or priests.

The virtues of solitude appeal to you most as it allows you the peace and acres of time that you need to investigate your favorite subjects. Even if you have never gone to school you probably have the equivalent of a Ph.D in some kind of esoteric or scientific subject. An important part of your self-expression is the ability to be able to pass this knowledge onto a willing enthusiast or student one day.

You are also likely to choose a romantic partner that shares your intellectual passions. As you are so quirky it takes a very special person indeed to understand your complex body language and need for a lot of personal space. Usually when you do find a partner that understands you, you are so grateful, that you become loyal for life. Although you make a great teacher, you do not necessarily make a good parent. This is because a child's curiosity often competes with your own child like need to be inquisitive and live in a fantasy world.

You are very logical and in terms of your personal tastes, believe that beauty is a matter of form following function. You are also a perfectionist so much of what you own will probably be the very best or state of the art. You should be well able to afford this as your deeply analytical and logical mind also often lends you a talent for investing money. Although you like owning the best on the market you are not the type to show off. You tend to hide your wealth from others as well as you hide your other secrets. This is partly an attempt on your part to see if an individual likes you for you.

You are very uncomfortable with expressions of emotion and often avoid "feeling your feelings."

Many of you may equate relationships with the idea of pain or as an element that could potentially throw you off your balance or defocus you from your "real work." Sometimes your emotions are manifested through illness as you have a tendency to stash all of your feelings, especially the painful ones such as resentment, to the back of your subconscious where they fester for years.

You are also prone to obsession if you let your feelings somehow become the focus of your life.

The challenge of some number sevens is to distinguish the difference between how they feel about a situation and the reality of it.

Your reverence for the mysteries of the universe makes you an adamant seeker of truth. Your search for an ideal society or a spiritual epiphany makes you more vulnerable than other numbers to the influences of cults or religious leaders.

Now, Let's Examine Your Soul Urge

(also known as your "Heart's Desire")

We have already done all the mathematics necessary to work out this number. It is simply the total of the top row (the vowels) of your full birth name.

In your case Tanmoy, this totals 7.

Tanmoy, your Soul Urge of 7 ...

What You Desire To Be, To Have, and To Do In Your Life

The highest calling of your soul is to learn about everything scientific and esoteric. Your thirst for knowledge is only quenched by copious hours alone spent studying your pet subjects. This can be any subject as many of you aspire to have brains that are the equivalent of Alexandrian libraries.

You love to read and subjects such as history, science, metaphysics, physics, archaeology and religion fuel your rich imagination with inspiration and ideas. Many of you are geniuses, plain and simple. Others may perceive you as very cold and even socially dysfunctional but actually your detachment from others is very spiritually sophisticated. You don't like expressing your emotions and like Dorothy Parker said you believe that "spilling one's guts is as ugly as it sounds."

Your reluctance to let anyone get to know the real you is an innate defense mechanism that prevents you from being hurt by others. You better than anybody know that knowledge is power and you don't want anyone to have power over you. This is because you often perceive relationships and their accompanying dramas and emotions to be an intrusion into your personal headspace.

You are usually a dreamer rather than a doer and best suit an occupation that allows you to sit and conceptualize to your heart's desire. Money means nothing to you as all of your riches come from books and learning however many of you often end up in well paid positions simply because you are brilliant and excel in school.

As you are so helpless socially and often unkempt personally as well, one of your greatest wishes is that someone will come along and take care of you. As you are so charming and humble in a mysterious way you usually luck out in the romance department. You have a knack for attracting individuals who need to feel special by being aligned with someone special and your eccentricities certainly fit the bill.

Your tendency to isolate yourself can also lead to distorted perceptions of reality and cognitive disorders such as obsessive compulsion and paranoia. It is a number 7 who is most likely to develop an obsession with a celebrity or create a conspiracy theory. Those are extreme examples but you need to realize that you are only human and that a lack of human contact and especially affection can distort your personality in unpleasant and unproductive ways.

As you are not that concerned with sex your libido which is often badly suppressed may also express itself in odd ways. It may manifest as a mania about a topic or obsession with cleanliness. Like a pure bred horse, you need a practical-minded steady companion to reign you in when your imagination goes wild.

You may also have a tendency to get stuck on one person whether the love is requited or not.

You may idealize this person and see them as a symbol rather than who they really are. In romance, you really do need to watch a tendency to project the qualities of a god or goddess on a quite ordinary person.

Living too much inside your head might present a lifetime's worth of challenge for you. Your cool personality often makes it difficult for you to make friends.

Opportunities often pass you by because your brilliance makes you forgetful. The best way to draw your soul out of the ether and back down into your body is to work out and exercise regularly. Long walks alone in nature can help satisfy your need for both solitude and grounding.

I hope you are enjoying this brief glimpse into the world of numerology -- the science of numbers, which governs much - if not most - of what happens in your life, your relationships, your health, and your economic future.

Please also realize this, Tanmoy:

If you want to receive (right away) all the love, money, health and happiness you desire... this will be the most important message you will ever read!

Here is why:

Over ten years ago my fiancée Wendy dragged me out of the house to meet a master numerologist visiting our town, Christchurch, in New Zealand. Back then I didn't think much of numerology, and neither did my scientist colleagues, especially 'Iron-head' John.

However, numbers always fascinated me so I decided to listen to what the mysterious numerologist had to say.

Tanmoy, I was stunned! Listen to the story he told me:

"Did you know a man named Wu of Hsia has discovered an ancient tortoise shell from China with very unusual writing on it? This writing is estimated to be about 4,000 years old and is said to be the oldest piece of writing in existence. It has been studied by some of the smartest historians, professors and scientists in the world and... they were all shocked to discover...

The Oldest Piece Of Writing In The World
Is About Numerology!

Numerology is perhaps the oldest science known to man. It is based on real numbers and mathematical principles that are predictable in nature. That's why Pythagoras... one of the greatest mathematicians in history (and someone you may remember from high school geometry)... studied it so intensely! Pythagoras is known as the 'father of numerology' because of the great advancements he made in the science more than 2,700 years ago.

Since then, there have been many more advancements in mathematics, and with it, in the science of numerology. You'll be amazed to discover how many things in the universe can be explained by a mathematical formula. Numbers govern much... if not universe can be explained by a mathematical formula. Numbers govern much... if not most... of what happens in your life, relationships, health, and finances. By just knowing your name and date of birth, I can tell you things about yourself, your relationships, and even your future that will blow your mind..."

And for the next hour, he did blow my mind. Since that day, my life, health, finances, and relationships have completely turned around...from being miserable...to everything I always dreamed them to be!

Now, I live in a beautiful home, with a loving family, in great health, and no worries.

I Even Discovered My True Destiny!

The master numerologist took me under his wing and, I soon discovered I could predict major events and turning points in peoples lives with laser-like precision ... I was able to create a "So accurate it's scary!"

"road map" for people's lives that left their jaw hanging open in astonishment ... I was able to glimpse into a person's very soul

At first, my scientist colleague 'Iron-head' John ridiculed me
- Susan Maurath, USA

day after day as I intensely studied numerology. He was a skeptic, just like I was before I started my amazing journey of discovery. But once he saw the accuracy of my predictions...once his life began changing dramatically better from my readings... 'Iron-head' John...like many of my scientist colleagues... transformed from a non-believer to a numerology fanatic! (His wife did too since I helped save their marriage).

Fast forward to today and, I've done over 12,500 of my comprehensive world-famous 'Life-Changing Numerology Readings' for people all over the world... many of whom are business executives, celebrities and politicians.

Recently the Chicago Sun-Times Newspaper published readings I did of: Famous actor Matthew Broderick (husband of Sarah Jessica Parker from the hit HBO

show Sex and the City)

Hip-hop singer Ciara (have you heard the never-gonna-get-it song "Goodies?")

Actress Sandra Oh, who stars on the hit show Grey's Anatomy and who you may have seen in the movie 'Sideways.'

I've been asked by the New York Post Newspaper to predict the outcome of the last presidential election (I was right) and I was approached by a TV show that aired nationwide across America to produce 'The Ultimate Guide For Learning Numerology Easily' which you may have seen on TV.

Despite all this, I have to admit something. Many people have been disappointed with me recently. Why? Because demand

"I sat in shock as I read it" for my 'Life-Changing Numerology Readings' is so great that people are on my waiting list for months, even years, to which you requested and received as a gift from me. Most people find this a very valuable and insightful gift, even though it only covers three of the 900 plus calculations I do in my comprehensive 'Life-Changing Numerology Readings!'

But this created a 'problem': You see, I am very passionate about my readings. And sometimes... a mini-reading gets me so involved and catches my attention so strongly... I can't help but 'itch' to go much further into it! And guess what Tanmoy? Your mini-reading is one of those I can't help but continue to go further into! That's why ...

I Already Began Preparing You

Did you know that your telephone number, home address, even the number of a hotel room you stay in effects your life... for better...or worse?

Numbers affect everything in your life, especially the numbers closest to you. And the digits in your phone number are very tied to your everyday identity and life. They are a gateway of communication between you and the people you love and work with.

I'll show you specifically how your phone number is influencing your career, as it can really make or break you. For example, I've recently had a travel agent who couldn't get her business to work. She did everything she could and she couldn't figure out what was going wrong. Well, after she received this report from me, she decided to change her phone number. And guess what? Her travel business instantly turned around! It's almost unbelievable, and it's true!

Don't overlook the power of these numbers in your life!

By the way, check immediately to see if your phone number 'reduces' to an eight.

Please let me demonstrate a technique discovered by 'Lo Shu' numerologists in China that will reveal details about your personality in just 10 seconds!

Take out a pen and paper and draw nine-boxes. You will write numbers from your birth date into these boxes, but NOT all the boxes. This will take about 10 seconds and it will reveal personal things about you even your closest friends don't know about! Including:

How you communicate with others!

Your levels of confidence!

How sensitive, perceptive, and intuitive you are!

How cooperative, diplomatic and tactful you are!

Secrets to your memory, intellect, and creativity!

And much more!

Warning: Be cautious about using this technique on others. It provides very personal information by simply knowing someone's birth date and how to place it into these nine boxes. However, it can be very useful if you need to evaluate someone you don't know. Many employers are now using it to evaluate job applicants because it reveals:

How neat and tidy you are!

How hardworking you are!

How attentive you are to details!

How emotionally balanced and stable you are!

Your levels of respect to home, family and responsibility!
Lessons you learned in life through disappointment and loss!
How well you finish what you start!
How much you care for other people and society!
Oh, this technique will also reveal if you have any 'positive arrows' or even 'negative arrows.' And you'll discover your 'karmic debts' which will explain why certain things keep happening in your life.
Like everything else, luck is largely influenced by numbers. This report will look at your important 'core' numbers and reveal how to attract luck into your life! You'll discover:
The truth about good luck and how it really works in your life behind the scenes!
A simple two-step method to instantly improve your luck! (Especially when playing a game of chance)!
The 6 magic words you must know if you want good luck! (This is so crucial...
it's a pre-requisite to having luck in your life).
Is your birth date really a lucky number? (The answer will surprise you)!

Is the number 3 a lucky number...or really an unlucky number? (Almost everyone gets this wrong).
Why 40% of your luck comes from your 'LP', 30% from your 'E', 20% from your 'HD' and 10% from your 'BD!'
How to get lucky breaks, over and over again!
Your lotto numbers! (These are the only numbers you should ever play)!
Why knowing your 'Lovers Number' can predict, strengthen and even save your relationship! (Check to see if it's a '4/8').
How to attract more opportunities...and even land a promotion!
Special Bonus: Which celebrities do you share lucky numbers with...and... what you have in common with them! (Are you more like Brad Pitt or George Clooney? Oprah or Julia Roberts? Cameron Diaz or Halle Barry? Sylvester Stallone or Jon Bon Jovi?
Jennifer Aniston or Drew Barrymore?)
Plus, you'll also discover the best time for you to:
Start a new project or relationship!
Travel!
Make new friends!
Spend time on yourself!
Spend time on your family!
Ask for a promotion or raise!
Note: Do not start reading this report from the first page! What you should immediately do is turn to the last page. There is something 'strange' included on this page which you must remove. Then, put it in your pocket, bag or wallet. What is this odd thing? I can't tell you until you see it for yourself. But I will tell you this: It is one of the most fascinating things you will ever see. And that's not all. Within 24 to 48 hours, you will begin to see something happen in your life. Trust me, you will know when it does and, it will occur throughout the day. You will quickly experience some of the greatest powers and life-improvements numerology has to offer you, specifically with achieving your goals, wishes and desires!

Oh, there's one more thing. Before you put this unusual thing in your pocket, bag or wallet, you have to write a small sentence on a sheet of paper. This sentence is the most important sentence you will ever write in your life. Please write it neatly and clearly.

Did you know you can turn a bad day into a great day by simply adding one color to your wardrobe? It's true. Try it out yourself tomorrow. But here's the catch: The same color won't work everyday! Not at all. You need to know what color the day requires. Luckily, this is easy. All you have to do is know your 'daily power number!'

You see, there is an energy that surrounds you and, this energy is largely influenced by your daily power number. Knowing it, you will anticipate in advance pleasant and difficult days in your future. And since every daily power number has a 'positive color' associated with it, you can drastically improve you day by adding this color to it! I'll tell you your daily power numbers along with their corresponding colors. So take out your calendar, because the daily power number will be the most important thing you'll write in it!

And if you are planning an event or activity, such as a job interview, date, party, home repair, or buying or selling a house or car, this is especially essential! (By the way, if tomorrow's power number is 11, pay attention to details in your personal relationships and, if it's 22, be particularly attentive to your career).

If you have one-minute, you can predict the future of any relationship!

Here's how:

Over the course of your life, you go through 9-year cycles. These cycles effect everything in your life and you can quickly determine which cycle you or anyone else are in (be it your lover, friend, family member, partner, boss or coworker). All you need is the exact day and year of the person's last birthday. Why is this important? Because knowing the cycle you and someone else are in...will tell you where your relationship with that person is heading! For example, some cycles draw you and your friends apart through distance and work, while other cycles bring you back through reunions. Likewise, differences in your and your lover's cycle will signal times of problems and times of growth. If either of you are in the 2, 4, 6 or 11 energy cycle, this is a particularly good time for growth. But if you are in a 5 and your lover in a 6, be prepared to have problems. (However, I'll show you how to stop 'cycle clashes' and have great relationships all the time).

Plus, depending on the cycle you are in, this year might or might NOT be the best time to start a new project, job, business or relationship, have a child, write a book, complete something you've started, move into a new home or redecorate, learn a new skill, art or language, or many other things. You'll know once you read this report.

This report uses another tool of mine to look at your future, accurately and in-detail. Here are some things you should look out for Tanmoy:

Very soon, you or someone you know could find yourself in the news!

See page

7!

Be prepared to have some unexpected financial problems at these times. The good news is there is help available you should know about. See page 8!

Then, on these days, you will have a particularly busy time. Don't rush too much, especially when traveling. And be careful of mistakes by others, especially on the road. See page 8!

If there is any time you should buy a lotto ticket or take a gamble, this is it! Luck is on your side as long as you do this one little thing! See page 12!

And, get ready for this emotional cycle of ups and downs. This could mean problems in your relationships, and something unusual may happen too. See page 13!

You'll also discover good and bad times to start new projects, travel, change jobs, ask for a promotion, take risks, move, invest in real estate, make money with something you created, take a new step in a relationship, and much, much more!

People love to have their palms read. That's because your palms have 'patterns' that reveal things about your life. Just like numbers, patterns are a study of mathematics and they reveal unique things about you. And in five minutes I'll show you everything you need to know to read your own, your lovers, or anyone else's palm!
You'll discover:
If you have an earth hand, air hand, fire hand, or water hand! (You'll never believe what each of these reveal!)
How doctors are diagnosing medical and psychological conditions by examining the patterns found in their patients hands! (Find out what your 'health line' really reveals and how 'islands' affect it!)
How the size of your fingers reveal how smart you are! (People have lots of opinions about this. You'll get the facts).

The 'thumb secret' that reveals how generous you are!
A 'finger thermometer' to how successful you are!
What the 'Mount of Venus' reveals about your attraction to the opposite sex!
What your 'marriage line' reveals about when you'll get married...and... how the marriage will turn out!
How many children you'll have (boys and girls)... as revealed in your 'children lines!'
What your 'fate line' reveals about the success and setbacks you'll have!
What your 'physical heart line' reveals about how you express your emotions!
What your 'head line' reveals about your smarts, memory and creativity! (And what it means if it's 'forked' at the end!)
How to detect the 'stars' in your hands that indicate good luck! (The type of luck depends on the mound the star is located on).
How to read your character, talents, destiny, and much, much more!
You'll also discover how palmistry can help you find true love, detect problems in your love life, and help your love grow to new heights. Plus, I'll show you how by comparing hands with your lover, you can tell how compatible you are! This makes for a fun, compassionate and romantic night in (for added spark, buy a bottle of red wine).
For many a collector's item, this is a rare and complete set of detailed notes from my one-time only, expensive and exclusive 16-hour weekend 'tell-it-all' seminar. I revealed here to a small room of attendees some of the greatest secrets known to mankind on achieving financial, emotional, spiritual, physical, and mental satisfaction, success and happiness. Everything I know on how to get what you want in life is revealed here. Of course, a significant part of this seminar focused on numerology. However, you will discover a lot more in these pages. You'll discover truths and fallacies about ESP, Auras, Chakras, Psychometry, Tarot Cards, Runes Stones, Tea Leaves, Healing, Clairvoyance, and holistic living with the Pendulum. You'll discover how to tap into the 'super-conscious mind' while you sleep to give you all the answers you want in life. You'll discover four easy and powerful meditation techniques that will increase your creativity and reduce your stress. You'll discover a lot more. Finally, you'll have in your hands an all-inclusive and easy-to-access reference book on how to make your dreams, wishes and desires come true.

In addition to your comprehensive 'Life-Changing Numerology Reading', and your 9 free reports, I am also giving you three more software bonuses for FREE! I have a set up a secret webpage where you can access these bonuses. When you arrive at the webpage, you will be asked for a password. Enter the word 'Destiny.' You'll discover three amazing software programs. If you enter your name and birthday into any of these programs, it will analyze it and give you something very neat in return! In fact, you can enter all your friends and family's names and birthdays too. No need to rush, because you can use these programs anytime - 24 hours a day, seven days a week, for the rest of your life!

Here they are:

Do you know anyone who always seems to be lucky? Always winning games, contests, and prizes?

Good things always happening? Well now it's your turn to be that person!

This unique program will calculate your lucky numbers for you. Not only will you discover your five 'universal lucky numbers', you'll also get your 'daily' lucky numbers, day-by-day for the next week! (I use these for my lottery tickets). And you can check your new lucky numbers every week!

Also, your friends will be really amused when you call to tell them their lucky numbers! But I have to warn you...they might start begging you to be picking their lottery numbers!

(Note: You will see noticeable patterns in your day-by-day lucky numbers. This is no coincidence.

These numbers are calculated using established numerological formulas, just like the patterns you see in all of nature).

With this tool, you can instantly create and print out 'mini-readings' for all your friends and family.

Just like the free mini-reading I sent you earlier, this one provides insights into your ultimate destiny, your potential natural abilities and what you want to be, have and do. But this mini-reading actually goes even further into your personality and future, opening your eyes to upcoming challenges and turning points in your life! So do your friends and family a favor and send them this mini-reading immediately! They'll appreciate it!

Remember I told you I was approached by a TV show that aired nationwide across America to produce 'The Ultimate Guide For Learning Numerology Easily?'

It's a guide that introduces the concepts, calculations and interpretations of numerology. And what's unique is the guide explains numerology to you by analyzing your very own name! This makes the learning experience fun, entertaining, and insightful to you!

For a long time this guide was sold on nationwide TV. I'm giving you the program to create and print as many of them as you want... for free! Yes, you can now produce personalized numerology lessons for your friends, family and associates! This makes a great birthday gift, by the way.

But that's not all!

In this guide you'll learn more about your lucky numbers! You'll discover your most important lucky number, and your second, third, and fourth luckiest numbers in rank order. I'll show you how to bring yourself fortune with these numbers, as well as the meaning they have in your life (they have a lot of meaning)! You'll also get a simple chart of your luckiest days in the next 6 months...and your luckiest months of the year!

How To Get All This Within 24 Hours!

Tanmoy, if you respond to me today, you'll receive your comprehensive 'Life-Changing Numerology

Reading', along with your nine free reports and the three free software bonuses... within 24 hours!

Let's review what you're getting:

If you add up the value of this package, you'll discover your Life-Changing Numerology Reading ($497.00 value), the nine free reports (total $873.00 value), and the three free software programs (total $291.00 value)... are together a value of $1,661. I thought about only asking you a few hundred dollars to send you all this. But I'm not even going to do that. No. For the whole enchilada, I am only going to ask... $67! And considering that your Life-Changing Numerology Reading alone has over 900 calculations performed for you...that comes out to just a little over... 13 Cents A Calculation!

And that's not all! In addition to giving away this package to you for mere pennies on the dollar, I am also making the following guarantee:

Take your time to look through your reading along with the free reports and software bonuses. If anytime within the next eight-weeks you don't think your reading is everything I say it is, just drop me a one-line email and...I will refund every single penny to you immediately, without any questions or hassles!

That's right. I am making this guarantee because I'm convinced this reading will amaze you and change your life. If not, I will gladly buy it back from you for $67.00, so you're not out a single cent. And you still get to keep the 9 free reports and three free software programs. That means no matter what, you only come out ahead.

However, you don't have much time left. To receive your 'Life-Changing Numerology Reading', 9 free reports and three software bonuses, you must act right now, today, May 5, 2011.

Listen: People typically pay me hundreds and thousands of dollars for all this and, happily wait a year to receive it. You're in a rare situation where your mini-reading excited me to go further into your particular analysis. That's why I'm making you this unique offer. I'm glad to do it. But my time is in great demand.

If you don't respond now, today, I'll be forced to move on to other people's readings and you'll lose your chance at this opportunity.

You know, there are thousands of people all over the world (and I'm not even talking about the celebrities and politicians, just regular everyday people) who's lives changed since receiving a reading from me:

I've had people go from financial troubles to financial success, doubling and tripling their incomes in little time.

I've had people come to me with health concerns and have not only regained their well-being, but also their youth and energy and quality of life (some even into their eighties and nineties).

And I've had couples on the brink of divorce now living the happiest, romantic and richly-fulfilling relationships I know of.
